Steven R. Paisner is one of the founding partners of Paisner Litvin Hauser, which is Of Counsel to FordHarrison LLP.

He focuses his practice on all aspects of labor and employment law, including collective bargaining negotiations, labor arbitrations, union elections, unfair labor practice proceedings, employment discrimination litigation, employment agreements, FMLA, Title VII, ADA, OSHA and wage and hour issues.

Paisner has served as lead negotiator in collective bargaining negotiations on behalf of many public and private sector clients. He has represented clients in dozens of successful union representation elections and has participated in administrative proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board and various state agencies. He also counsels companies on compliance issues, including sexual harassment investigations, plant closures, discipline and terminations.

Before opening Paisner Litvin, Mr. Paisner was with the Philadelphia law firms of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling and Pepper Hamilton. Mr. Paisner is a former speechwriter for U.S. Senator Arlen Specter and has been involved in several political campaigns.

He is a member of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey bars.
