Lash Harrison has more than 40 years of experience representing management in all aspects of employment and labor law. During those 40 years he has represented employers in almost every state and in a variety of industries.

Throughout his career, Lash has served in leadership roles in a number of professional and civic organizations. He was a member of the Emory University's Board of Visitors from 1999 to 2002 and a member of the Board's Executive Committee in 2001-2002. Currently, Lash is a member of the Emory University Law School Council. He also serves as a Trustee and the current Board Chair of Trinity School, Inc.

Since the firm's inception in 1978 with 14 lawyers, Lash has served as Managing Partner. He has overseen the growth of the firm in recent years and Ford & Harrison is now one of the largest labor and employment law firms in the United States with nearly 200 attorneys. Lash also serves as chairman of the Executive Committee.
