pdas@fordharrison.com / P: 860-740-1077

Proloy K. Das represents clients involved in appellate litigation in various civil litigation matters and serves as Chair of FordHarrison's Appellate Practice Group.

Proloy has argued more than 90 appeals before state and federal appellate courts including the Connecticut Supreme Court, Connecticut Appellate Court, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and U.S. Court of Appeals for Ninth Circuit. Due to his breadth of experience in appellate matters, he was appointed to the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit pro bono panel of appellate advocates for indigent appellants. Proloy has also argued first impression cases in several areas of law.

In his election law practice, Proloy represents clients on ballot access issues, election recounts and challenges, and administrative proceedings before the state elections enforcement commission. Proloy is the Connecticut chair to the Republican National Lawyers Association, has served as general counsel to the Connecticut Republican Party, and has represented the House and Senate Republican caucuses in constitutional litigation.

Prior to entering private practice, Proloy served as an Assistant State's Attorney in the Appellate Bureau of the Chief State's Attorney's Office.
